

2010 Coach of the Year

ANNIE PRICE

Annie Price was selected as the League's Coach of the Year based on the voting at A-Championships. She was noted as a good choice because she balances a competitive nature with courtesy and respect for other coaches and officials and loves working with her swimmers.

Division 5 - Annie Price - HighWoodlands

Annie Price has been a part of Midlakes Swim League since the age of 9, first swimming for the Kingsgate Royals. Then, beginning her coaching career with the Royals as an assistant coach for 2 seasons.

In 2002, she was offered a Head Coaching position for the Somerset Stingrays where she coached for 7 incredible seasons. In 2002, she helped to lead the Stingrays to a Division 4 Championship.

After a very difficult decision and the need to be closer to home, Annie took a coaching position with High Woodlands where she has been coaching for the past 2 seasons. The Dolphins took 1st in Division 5 Championships in 2009 and again in 2010. In 2009, she was voted coach of the year for Division 5.

Division 4 - Zack Foster - Triangle

Division 3 - Jun Nelson - Tam O'Shanter

Jun started swimming for Midlakes when he was 8 and swam until 18. He became a coach when he was a junior in high school and the kids voted him Most Inspirational Swimmer that season. He finished 6th at State in 100 yds breaststroke his senior year. He won the UW intramural in 50 breast. Under his coaching, TOS had an undefeated season last year. He swam at Division III Conference for Whitworth. He has loved working with the kids.

Division 2 - Mary Orlosky - Mercer Island Country Club

Division 1 - Alice Godfred - Mercerwood Shore Club